Museu de la Rajoleria (Tile and Brick Industry Museum)

Participating institutions: Town Council of Paiporta
Museu Valencià d’Etnologia (Valencian Museum of Ethnology)

The Museu de la Rajoleria (Tile and Brick Industry Museum) is located in the former Rajolar de Bauset. Its permanent exhibition –installed in the furnaces- provides us with information about the history, production techniques and social and economic aspects of this traditional Valencian industry. The museum also has an interesting programme of temporary exhibitions and didactic workshops. The Museu Valencià d’Etnologia collaborates in different fields, such as the exchange of pieces or the participation in the production of some exhibitions. Likewise, through the “Memòria Oral Valenciana – Museu de la Paraula” project (Valencian Oral Memory – Museum of the Word), it participates in interviews held with people who worked or had some kind of relationship with the factory.
